Preferred seats

Do you find yourself looking for a little extra space when you fly? Then look no further than our Preferred seats.

Preferred seats offer extra legroom when you travel in Economy class, giving you more space to relax and stretch out or work in comfort. In many cases, these seats are also at the front of the aircraft, which means you can deplane much faster upon arrival.

On Air Canada rouge, Preferred seats go by the name rouge Plus.

Advance Seat Selection

Make your selection now to secure the seat that best suits your needs.

Do you like to sit by the window? Would you rather be close to the front so you'll get to your connecting flight quicker? Or are you looking for adjacent seats for you and your travel partner?
